

LAMINATED TRUCK FLOORING

Tropical Hardwood LTF

THE HIGHEST QUALITY LTF

Nova industrials hardwood Laminated Truck Flooring (LTF) is the ideal product for van bodies and enclosed trailers. Our LTF is made from naturally durable, sustainably sourced tropical hardwoods. Offering unparalleled resilience against heavy loads and abrasion, and engineered with precision for added strength, this flooring solution ensures superior performance and longevity. Nova's LTF is the long lasting economical choice when it comes to outfitting van bodies and enclosed trailers.

CUSTOMIZED SOLUTIONS

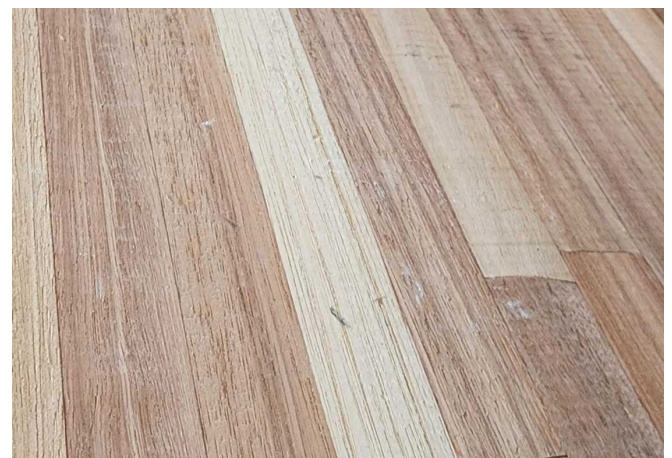

Nova has experts ready to create custom patterns to outfit van bodies and enclosed trailer applications with CAD drawing assistance. Our kits provide a top down solution for laminated truck flooring, including our custom sizing, black protective undercoating, scuff liners, tie downs, as well as water based finish designed for laminated truck flooring to ensure long-lasting quality results. We recommend regular maintenance on your LTF with our premium water based wood stain EcoShield.
